Room Rentals & Sublets:

If you did not request a dorm room and would like to find your own place to stay: For stays of 2 weeks or more, Airbnb.com is your best bet. Regular flat rentals need a contract of at least a year. If your training will last a year or more, www.591.com.tw is a local website for finding flat rentals.

Travel Visa & Residence Permit

Travel Visa to Taiwan:

After receiving the admission letter from CMUH, visit your local Taiwan Embassy (called Taipei Economic and Cultural Office - TECO) to apply for a Visa. Present the CMUH admission letter and Ministry Approval letter* as proof of the training. Please consult with your local embassy for other application instructions and requirements.

**Only for fellowship candidates training for over 1 month.*

The Alien Residence Card (ARC):

For training programmes longer than 6 month, some trainees will need to obtain a residence permit from the immigration office in the form of an ARC. After arrival at the hospital, the Department of Education will provide the necessary documents for ARC application.

ARC Application Instructions –

1. Prepare the following documents:

- CMUH Admission letter and Ministry Approval – provided by CMUH
- Proof of Enrollment – provided by CMUH
- Copy of Passport
- Photo - 4.5cm x 3.5cm with white background
- Application Fee – $1000 for stays of up to 1 year or less
- ARC Application Form – <https://www.immigration.gov.tw/media/37407/application-form.pdf>

2. Travel to the Immigration Services Center in Taichung no later than 15 days after arrival
